

BRITISH FUZE NUMBERS

The United Kingdom has produced an amazing number of fuzes in an amazing number of models. It is very difficult to be certain that what you have in your hand is in fact a Model 9000 graze action with percussion and time and is the third model. Some of the model changes were undetectable being purely internal or changes to material not obvious to the eye. The following list is a beginning of hopefully the identification of all British fuzes and their models. Wishful thinking I know but we have to start somewhere. All and any information will be most appreciated.
